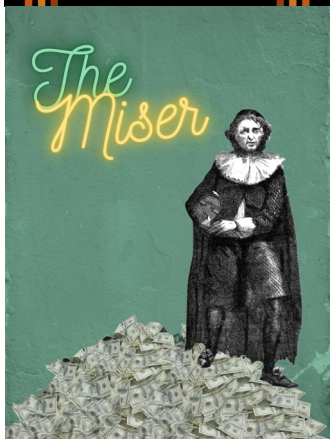
Bridget McCarthy (she/they) is an actor and the executive director of Atlanta Artist Relief Fund. Recent favorite Atlanta roles include Mrs. Wormwood (Matilda: The Musical, Onstage Atlanta), Beatrice (Much Ado About Nothing, Wayfinder's Ensemble), and Laertes (Hamlet, Atlanta Shakespeare Company). She has worked extensively with Shakespeare Behind Bars as a facilitator, and with the Shakespeare in Prisons National Network.

Candace Lambert grew up in an artistic family. Her mother an actress and both siblings are musicians. After receiving a BFA from Florida State University, she came to Atlanta where she earned an MA in Theater from GSU and acted in productions at Onstage Atlanta, Theater Gael, the Renaissance Festival and performed as a storyteller in The Tour of Southern Ghost at The Art Station. Candace is happy to return to stage acting with such a wonderful and talented group of people.

Stage Door Theatre: Season 48



Hope Funke is thrilled to be returning to Stage Door! She graduated from the University of Minnesota/ Guthrie Theater BFA Actor Training Program before making the move to Atlanta. Since then, she has become involved in the Atlanta comedy scene by joining RoleCall Theatre's house improv team, Conditional Hug, as well as performing stand up comedy at The Punchline.

Jessica Wise is an Atlanta-local actress, writer, and entrepreneur. By day, she works as a copywriter for a creative ad agency and for herself as editor-in-chief of her own e-magazine, Audacity Magazine & Events. She has appeared most recently in A Christmas Carol at Stone Mountain Park, 12 Angry Jurors at Act3 Productions, and more. However, her proudest moment continues to be winning the 2017 MAT Award (Best Supporting Actress in a Play) as Beneatha in A Raisin in the Sun.

Josh Brelsford is a recent graduate of the University of Minnesota/ Guthrie BFA Actor Training Program. Prior roles include Al Manners in Trouble in Mind, the King in Love's Labour's Lost, and Trent Summers in the world premier of Skin in the Game. When not on stage, Josh enjoys redefining the lullaby on his Hammered Dulcimer, and finding new trails to hike.

Finish up your Spooky Season:

Libby Williams is an Atlanta native and an alumna of the University of Alabama. Brewer Kunnemann is an Atlanta native who studied theatre at the University of Georgia. Following that, he partook in the Atlanta Shakespeare Companies' Apprenticeship program, where he was classically trained by their veteran staff of actors. You might have seen him in King Lear as France and Regan's 1st Servant. He wants to thank his family, friends, and partner for their constant support.

Clidlin "Bobby" Augustin is a very recent Atlanta implant. He is thankful to the masterful direction of Willie E. Jones III. It's been a very long time since I've touched the stage or a script with a cast and crew as lovely and welcoming as the humans at Stage Door Theatre; it's exciting and refreshing. Enjoy the show!

Willie E. Jones III (Artistic Director/ Director) trained at the University of Minnesota/Guthrie Theatre BFA Actor Training Program. He's received additional training at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts. He has had the pleasure of performing on The Globe stage in London in the title role of Julius Caesar. Additionally, he co-created a summer theater program called the Educational Theatre Program, or ETEP, for short.

Allison Cash (Stage Manager, Lighting and Sound Designer) is a Dunwoody native. She graduated from Columbus State University with her BFA in Theatre Design and Technology. She has worked in all areas of theatre, but focuses in stage management. Her work has taken her all over Georgia, but she is thankful to be working in her home again. She is so thankful for the entire cast and crew, as well as Justin Robinson and her parents.
